DEATH OF JUDGE BARRY.

George A. Barry, city justice of the peace of Park City, died this afternoon, from heart failure, superinduced by inflammation of the bowels, after an illness of two weeks. Judge Barry was born in New Jersey, Aug. 6, 1833. In 1859 he came to Park City, and afterward to Idaho, where he built one of the first cabins on what is now the site of Boise City. He came to Park City twenty-seven years ago, and has ever since resided in this city. He was a great prospector and was generally supposed to be the best posted man in this district on its formations. His history of mining is similar to most of the argonauts—many ups and downs, many trials and hardships, varied by occasional periods of good fortune. Judge Barry was elected city justice of the peace in November 1899. He has filled the position with satisfaction to all people. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. J. J. Conroy of Butte, Mont., who was his only child at the time of his death. The funeral services will be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. from the Methodist church.

Dark Hair WILL PUSH THE GRAYING WORK.

We mean all that rich, dark color your hair used to have. If it's gray now, no matter; for Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. And often it makes the hair grow very heavy.

LEIGH, IDAHO.

Locating Reservoir Lands—Sheep Herds May Precipitate Trouble.

Special Correspondence.

Leigh, Fremont Co., Idaho, July 21.—Thirteen lakes have been located in South Leigh canyon, 15 miles from here. Eight of them can be used to advantage as reservoirs. The largest one is one half mile long and 30 rods wide. Several men of the Leigh Creek canal company with Bishop Mickle have appropriated the water in the name of the company. It is to be hoped that the whole community will have the privilege of taking stock in this enterprise.

WATER SCARCITY.

The weather continues hot and dry. A great many acres of grain will be a failure for want of water.

TROUBLE PORTENDED.

Sheep are getting very close to Jackson's Hole and trouble is brewing. The people in the Hole say they don't want trouble and they won't let them in. Sheepmen should be a little more considerate and avoid conflict as the settlers are a determined and united set in the Hole.

NEELEYVILLE, IDAHO.

Opportunities for the Enterprising Homeseeker.

Neeleyville, Oneida Co., Idaho, July 20.—This place is five miles out from American Falls, on the Snake River and the station of that name on the O. R. L. Railway. It is situated on Warm Creek, the water of which originates in a warm spring up the canyon a short distance. The most of the land is rolling and fertile when well cultivated. The place is small but would grow if the water was more wisely and judiciously handled. There is good opportunity to reserve water from the creek could be brought out at American Falls that would cover 1,500 acres of land at a cost of about two thousand dollars. The water, which is used in the creek could be put on higher lands and thus greatly increase the farming land and the population. There are many improvements being made here that will give a credit to the people.

It is also stated that the reorganization will be completed by the middle of the present month. It is also stated that the reorganization will be completed by the middle of the present month. ON THE INCREASE.

Railroad Earnings Ten Per Cent Higher Than 1900.

Dun's Review says that the gross earnings of all railroads in the United States, reported for July to date, are $10,255,775, a gain of 10.1 per cent over 1900, and a gain of 19.4 per cent over 1899. The increase continues well up with preceding months, and is a heavy and profitable tonnage. Earnings on all classes are larger than last year, though St. Paul and some other Grangers report a loss compared with 1899 when the grain movement was very large.

TIED UP THE ROAD.

Poor lone widow Mary Kelly defied the Pennsylvania Railroad company, stopped the United States mails, and tied up the Cleveland & Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania road by sitting on the track yesterday.

In excavating for an additional siding the railroad caved off some of Mrs. Kelly's barn yard. All her cows were killed. The engineer stopped and tried to persuade her to move, although he was afraid to use violence. Behind the fence was the wife, and that she was not going to fight the railroad company's battles, and let her go. (Cleveland Correspondence Chicago American.)

FRENCH METHODS.

In France they manage the habitual criminal question better than in any other country in the world. For instance a pickpocket, a professional beggar, or a habitual "drunk and disorderly" is brought up to his or her fourth or fifth conviction. It is proved beyond doubt that he or she is incapable of performing the duties, and therefore of exercising the rights, of a free citizen; sentence, is passed for the last time, a term of imprisonment is imposed which is really a preparation for the new life which the hopeless case, the piece of human refuse, is to lead.

"At the expiration of your sentence you will be placed in reintegration," says the judge.

That means banishment for life. The criminal never sees his old haunts, never mixes with his old cronies, never cradles to his grave. Those who cannot be put in the workhouse, or to contaminate the society which has now finished with him. Moreover, he has got to work, and if he won't do that, he will find his food cut down and himself in prison, which is made just about as uncomfortable for him as any other place.

France possesses two of these dumping grounds for human refuse, as they may be called. One is French Guiana, which is about one of the best places in the world to get out of and stay away from. The other is the Isle of Pines, which is a coral-fringed paradise far away in the South Pacific one of the most beautiful spots ever trodden by human feet, or darkened by the presence of human crime.

Their working day is about seven hours and a half. They are well treated, well fed, and by no means overworked. Of course, very few of them know anything about a trade. Their only idea in life has been to loaf. Their life is a double life, don't they exist. 5. Saving time, precious, don't waste it. 6. Absolute safety, be sure you're right, then go ahead.
